Dedication

Jerry Wilch

We, the Seniors of Bettsville High School, wish to dedicate our annual to Jerry Wilch. Jerry, living in Tiffin with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. Don Wilch, his sister Judy, and his brother, Johnny, spends much of his time operating a ham radio set.

Jerry attended school with us until the fourth grade. At that time he was unable to return to school.

Last Will and Testament of Senior Class of 1963

We, the Seniors of 1963, of the city of Bettsville, county of Seneca, and state of Ohio, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

- I, JUDY BAKER, leave my ball points and pencils to Larry Lanning.
- I, SUSIE BAKER, leave my natural blonde hair to Janet Stover.
- I, JACKIE DANTUONO, leave my English class M&M's to Mr. Bricker.
- I, SHERIE HUMBERT, leave my dislike of baseball to Phyllis Hull.
- I, CONCHITA RODRIQUEZ, leave my height to Margaret Lynch.
- I, CHARLET STEFFANNI, leave my slimness to Cathy DeVanna.
- I, KAREN SWARTZMILLER, leave my curly hair to Molly Nava.
- I, MIKE BURD, leave my ability to do algebra to Mr. Hazimah.
- I, PAUL FEATHERS, leave my ability to outrun cops to Mr. Kramb.
- I, DAVE GARN, leave my eagerness to get out of school to Bob Chapman.
- I, MIKE KING, leave my driving ability to Mr. Lucius in hopes he loses his license for life.
- I, JOE LYNCH, leave my quietness to Jim Swartzmiller.
- I, DAN ROWE, leave my physics and chemistry books to Dickie Sorg.
- I, LARRY SCHWOCHOW, leave my love of Bettsville to Old Fort.
- I, GARY SIMPSON, leave my ability to stay away from girls to Bob Chapman.
- I, GERRY WHITACRE, leave my anti-teacher attitude to Mr. Lucius.

To hide a heavy heart, we have shown our Last Will and Testament in a light vein. As we enter into another stage of our life, we express our grateful thanks to all concerned. Admittedly, there were times when appreciation appeared lacking, but youth is fickle. As we leave the classroom behind, we hope to maintain always our youth in spirit, and to mature mentally to the point where our loved ones will show pride and we, our happiness. The success of our families, our teachers, and ourselves will then be apparent.

Who's Who

by Jack Dante

As we leaf through the New York Times, we come upon the famous Who's Who column by our own Jackie Dantuono. Although she writes under the pen name of Jack Dante, she can't hide her sneaky style.

Well, on with the column. Um, what have we here---

The candidates for President this election year are none other than Joe Lynch and Dave Garn. Joe has gotten his experience as a general in the Army. Although Dave hasn't been seen too much in politics, I think he can handle the job. Any man that can discipline a family of 20 children ought to be able to handle a country!

Doctor Daniel Rowe, who you'll remember as that mad chemistry student, has discovered the cure for the common cold. You gargle every hour with Rowe's Rat Rinse and you'll cure your cold in three months.

Mrs. Sherie Humbert Borer has just donated another million for the building of an orphanage on the moon. Sherie always did love children, and even with eight of her own, she and Ralph are willing to help other needy children in the universe.

Paul Feathers, that noted night club owner, has just opened his third night club on Mars. The name of this club is "Marvin's." When we asked Mr. Feathers why he picked this name, he said--"It was where I got my start."

Once again, as always, the United States is in front of Russia in the space race. Last Thursday at 6:00 we launched "Construgg II." Aboard was the famous woman astronaut Lt. Judy Baker. Lt. Baker orbited the planet Pluto three times then returned safely to the earth. When asked to comment on her journey, Judy said, "It was wonderful, but ever since my last year at Bettsville High, I've been going in circles." You'll remember that Lt. Baker was also the first woman to orbit the earth and the moon. Accompanying her on the trip was Susie Baker who served as her chief stewardess. Glancing at Susie's record we find that she now owns three spaceship lines, two interplanetary stations, and is bargaining with President Lilliptianous Singerwollingford, for the purchase of his planet, Venus.

"Construgg II" was the creation of General Mike Burd. The color and shape came from his first car, "The Renault."

The opening of the trans-Atlantic turnpike brought visitors from all over the world. First, we see Larry Schwochow owner of Schwochow's Cheap Shipping. One of his trucks will be the first to cross the trans-Atlantic Pike. His Motto is "Ship Cheap through Cheap Shipping by Schwochow's Cheap Shipping Shippers." Conchita Rodriquez and her husband from South America donated $25,000,000,000 for the building of the pike. If you want another super highway you'd better drink more of Connie's Coffee. Prof. Charlet Steffanni, architect of the pike, christened the pike "Ogglethorpehaggen." I see Charlet still hasn't gotten away from those long names. Prof. Steffanni's next pursuit will be to build a trans-planetary road to the moon.

The U.S. has finally gotten a budget whereby in ten years we'll be out of debt. Gary Simpson, the world renowned accountant, came up with the idea--for every dollar's worth of gold, you make 2-one dollar bills.

In this week's issue of Post, there is the life story of Karen Swartzmiller, the woman who revolutionized the work of the private secretary. Karen discovered a short cut to taking notes in shorthand. She is calling it "Shorter Than Short Shorthand."

The world is closer to peace than ever before. Gerry Whitacre, president of the Peace Corps, has predicted peace within the next year.

Along with the thoughts of world peace and the conquering of the universe comes Mike King who kept sports car racing from becoming extinct. Mike is trying to get a day set aside for sports car racing on the Ogglethorpehaggen pike.

Christmas Operetta

THE HAPPY CHRISTMAS TREE

Directed by Mr. Allen Schulte

The Christmas Operetta, held December 18, 1962, opened in a lot where Christmas trees were on sale. The salesmen discovered a misshaped tree and cast it aside.

All the trees had been sold when Billy, a poor newsboy arrived seeking a tree for his widowed mother and little sister. Billy's disappointment was turned to joy when he discovered the discarded tree and was told he may have it as a gift.

On his way home Billy met a group of children playing soldier. At first they made fun of his tree, then borrowed it that they might sing a Christmas song and dance around it. The dance got rough and the tree was broken.

Billy was heartbroken at the loss of his tree but is comforted by a group of Carolers who happened by.

All were excited when Santa Claus arrived. Santa told them he had made this special visit because a deserving newsboy was in need of a Christmas tree for his widowed mother and little sister.

Billy was speechless when Santa Claus presented him with a beautifully decorated tree. Then all joined in singing Christmas songs.
